

(CD track 18)

7. HALALA LA YAWA

$\text{♩} = 120$

trad. Palestinian folk-song

Chorus

Ha-la-la-la-ya wa, ha-la-la-la-ya, let us sing in praise of love.
Ha-la-la-la-ya wa, ha-la-la-la-ya, ay-i-ni-ye mu-li-yair

True bles-sing, for al-ways, gra-cious gift from hea-ven a-bove.
ta-bal ha-wa ye-hel-we a-mah-la-ka shwa_____ ye.

Fine

Verse

1. Love has come to bless us; make a bond bet-ween us; strong yet gen-tle, breath of love.
2. Now we come toge-ther; pledge our love for e-ver, with our friends and fam-lies here.

Like a scen-ted breeze, through the blos-soms, as we tryst in cit-rus shade;
Seek the co-ver-ing and the bles-sing of the tent of God's own love;

Sweet yet piqu-ant, sharp yet frag-rant, breath of pas-sion fills the glade;
Vows ex-chan-ging, love en-ga-ging, with God's ca-no-ply a-above.

All em-bra-cing, two hearts ra-cing, held and en-tranced by the breath of love Lives to-ge-ther, now and e-ver, kept by the God who is e-ver near

to Chorus